Brian Carlisle Hill was born on November 24, 1958. Brian was born to Vernon Carlisle Hill and Georgia Nadine Shannon. Brian was born in Ogden, Utah. Some of his favorite memories was hunting with his loving father and brothers.

Brian had a love for animals. He had a gift that came naturally to him. He understood them, knew how to treat them, and most importantly knew how to love them. He could train any horse no matter the circumstances. Many of his family and friends called him the “horse whisperer”. He not only had a special gift caring for animals, he had a special gift caring for people. Brian played a significant role in the people he cared for especially his nieces and nephews, taking in many as his own. He cared for his family and friends in such a way that made them believe they were each his favorite. He was truly loved by all.

He is survived by his father Vern, (Joyce, stepmother) siblings; Pam Hulse, Noel (Kristie) Cahoon, Brent, Bruce (Paige), Brenn (Sylina), and many nieces and nephews. Brian was preceded in death by his mother Georgia, his grandparents, and his niece Stephanie.

“ I am so sad to hear of Brian passing. Taylor Elementary, Central Junior High and Ogden High school hold many fun memories of Brian. We reconnected when we ran into each other in Evanston. He was so concerned about young kids who had lost their way, or had been rejected by family when they had told them about their sexual orientation. He always was worried about these people who seemed to seek him out. I don't blame them, you were always certain to get some support and love from Brian. Im sorry for the loss of this big hearted man. Lee Ann Stevens
