“ I hit the wrong key and I think i deleted my post. Carma had a way of making other people happy. She was always smiling I always felt loved by her. I will miss you everyday. Love you always and forever.

“ My sweet Carma, you know how much I love you. I told you every time I saw you. You have been so good for Darwin all these years. I told you both that when I found out you lived so close to each other I hoped something wonderful would happen. When we got the call from Jed asking if I knew someone called “Pete” I kinew my wish had come true. Our Jed is an amazing man that we love dearly. We love you Darwin Jed and al the rest of the family. I tell everyone I love them every time I talk so don't any of you ever forget that.
