“ To Carol's family and loved ones, we are so sorry to hear of her passing, and we had hoped to make it out there to see her again. She was such a great friend and neighbor in the 7 years we lived next to her. Our hearts are breaking today. She watched over us in life, and we know she'll continue to watch over us from heaven. We'll forever carry her in our hearts, and we are grateful that she's now out of pain.

“ Carol, our heart broke when you were called home. You came into our lives and our world was a better place. You taught us so much about life. Through this great loss, we got to know and love your daughter Kris and her family Alyssa, Andrew and Sean plus your great grandchildren Alexia, Carly and baby Ava. Carol, I know you will guide and give strength to those who mourn your passing. You will always be with Kris and her family along with all of us who loved you. We pray that you are at peace. You will always be in our hearts, we love you Carol. Kris our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Carol the morning Kris text me to say that you were gone struck me like a freight train going 230 mph. I knew of the circumstances and the pain and suffering you were going through. You will be missed more than you know by many whose lives in which you've touched in so many different ways... As I sit here with tears rolling down my face you've always said you've wanted to come visit Florida well now you can and my doors always open... I know that Kris is missing you so much and there was so many things that she still wanted to do and say so please watch over her and comfort her along with the grand children and great grand children she's going to need your support from up above... I know you were welcomed when you arrived with family members who have past on along with numerous ones from my side so your not alone (Watch out for my Dad he can get into all types of mischief) lol... But in closing always remember that we'll always love you and some day we shall see each other again!!
