“ Cody... sure am missing you more than ever. Life is so weird now! The absence of you and your laugh is almost unbearable. There never was more than a few seconds to pass without a smile or laugh. Thanks for all of the good moments, they're countless. Please watch over all of us. Love you always! 🙌📖❤️🙌

“ Just thinking about you... That is nothing new though. If only you could see how much you are missed and loved, I am sure that God is giving you the best glimpse of it all. No more sadness, hurt, or struggles. Your chains are broken and you have no more demons trying to poke at you! Life is so weird now...please watch over all of us. Miss you more than words can describe!

“ I used to call him "eye candy", he could sale a slurpee to a eskimo.. He helped out at the merchandise table when I was on the nuacna committee I was amazed to watch him in action. Your fight is over. Rest in peace my friend..

“ My sweet sweet Cody... Where to even start? The pranks or the heart of a gentle giant? There was NEVER a dull moment. Last time we went to the movies there was a homeless person and you paid for him, he sat behind us and he was so warm and thankful. All of the times that you watched pranked and called me up and we went and actually did them in the public.. Hahaha. The summer is not going to be the same! Camping, hiking, car shows, jamming out to music, and an hour yearly Park City trip. Our hearts are heavy and there will not be a day that goes by that you are not thought of! May you be with God and enjoying every moment until we all meet again. Love you!
