

Dee Ann Muhlestein

May 12, 1939 - October 28, 2012

Dee Ann Wall Muhlestein, 73, passed away peacefully on Sunday, October 28, 2012, in Heber, Utah. Dee Ann was born May 12, 1939 in Heber City, Utah to Cecil I. and Mabel Wall. She married J. Clark Muhlestein, August 29, 1958, they were later divorced. Dee Ann was a member of Wasatch High School class of 1957. She went on to work for the telephone company for seven years and enjoyed many lasting friendships from that opportunity. She was the mother of two sons, Bryan C. Muhlestein and Brett J. Muhlestein; they kept her very busy, but were also her greatest joy. Dee Ann spent several years caring for her mother. She was an active member in the LDS church and loved the gospel. Dee Ann had a heart of gold and had a great love for her family. She never forgot a birthday or special event, and many would receive hand written notes of love.

Dee Ann is survived by her sons Bryan (Jackie) Muhlestein, and Brett (Brandi) Muhlestein. Grandchildren Kiara (Boone) Kummer, Shauni (J.D.) Heckert, Katelyn, Kambrea and Zackery Muhlestein and great grandchildren, Maycee and Ryder Kummer. Brother Howard E. (Lois) Wall, Sister in law Nellie Wall, and many nieces and nephews. Proceeded in death by her parents Cecil I. and Mabel Wall, her siblings Evelyn, Viola, Richard, and Maxine.

Dee Ann's family extends many thanks to all the friends, physicians and health care providers including staff at Sante Assisted Living and Encompass Hospice for their kind and compassionate care.

A gathering for family and friends will be held Thursday, November 1, 2012 at 10:00 am with funeral services to follow at 12 noon. Both will be held at Heber 3rd Ward LDS church, 240 E. 400 S., Heber, Utah. Interment at Heber City Cemetery following services

Tribute Wall

BM

“ To my dear mother, wow I feels like just yesterday I was at the rest home to have one of our many visits .. To take you for a ride to the store or just sit and talk about out famlily and friends. Now my heart feels so empty, it's Christmas I wanted to call you, I found myself picking up my phone to say merry Christmas? I have done it more then once, mom this is so hard! I spent everyday with you from being a boy to a man . Live in our home with my little stinker as you would put it. The day putting you inthe rests one i thought was hard but you gone completely out of my life ... I feel lost , I thank the good lord for my wife Jackie cuz you and I had our long talks of what we tought was going to happen when this day comes mom and you was right! It is happening.. Faster the I thought. But me and my wife have to move dad kicked us all out. I'm ok with it cuz it's time to move on that house had a black cloud over it. Please watch over all the famlily mother make sure my grand kid is ok and comes into this world with all ten toes and all ten fingers. Mom I miss you! Love you forever Bryan mulhestein

Bryan muhlestein - December 25, 2012 at 12:34 PM

GS

“ We have known Dee Ann from our school days. She and Sharon were also in the 4th ward together. She was always so quiet and sweet. We enjoyed having her attend the 7th ward with us. We were not able to attend her service but want the family to know we cared about her and wish each of you the best in dealing with her loss. She was a fine person and will be missed by many.

Gordon and Sharon Spencer - November 06, 2012 at 12:41 PM

BR

“ Thank you to family and friends for your kind thoughts and prayers.

Brandi - October 31, 2012 at 01:13 PM