

Dianne Duty

July 31, 1942 - August 4, 2019

Dianne Duty, 77, of Orem died Aug 4, 2019, in Spanish Fork, Utah.

She was born July 31, 1942, a daughter of Spencer Verse & Shirley Ann Squires Bardsley, in Provo, Utah. She married Ben Edward Duty in Provo, UT.

Dianne was a mother and homemaker. She loved animals. She had thirteen horses at one time, and seven dogs at another. She loved to garden and had a beautiful yard. She loved shopping and was considered “best dressed” among all who knew her. She was talented and beautiful. She had many hobbies such as decorating her home, acting, dancing, running and painting.

A very fun, and spunky lady that loved to laugh with her family. She will be well missed.

Survivors include her daughter Mrs. Buff (Michelle) Williams, St. George Utah, her son Mr. Bryant Duty, South Bend, Indiana, seven grandchildren, eight great grandchildren and her brother Mr. Brent Bardsley, Cupertino, California. She was preceded in death by her grandma Christine Hansen, her mom Shirley, her dad Spence and her son Mr. Michael Todd Woodbury.

“ I enjoyed Dianne very much. We had some great conversations on the phone and in person. She was very kind to reach out to me last year when I lost my husband to cancer. She was sympathetic to my situation and offered to chat with me whenever I needed a friend. I visited her at her home and she introduced me to her pups, all 6 or 7 at the time. She often expressed her love for her children. I know she will find peace on the other side.
