

Evelyn Nellie Robison

March 5, 1938 - April 12, 2014

Evelyn Nellie Robison, 76, of Taylorsville Utah, died Saturday, April 12th, 2014 after a battle with breast cancer. She was born to the late Albert and Nellie Mecham on March 5th, 1938 in Salt Lake City, Utah. Ev is survived by her husband James H. Robison and their children, Mark, Jeff, Craig, Mindee, Ryan, and Krista. Ev considered their spouses to be her own children. Jim and Ev have 21 grandchildren and their first great-grandchild is due to arrive this June. Ev graduated from Granite High School in 1956 and married her sweetheart, Jim , in 1959. Together, Jim and Ev have enjoyed 55 years of marriage and were sealed together for time and all eternity in the Jordan River Temple of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. Ev was a loving wife, mother, and friend; she was passionate about her family and dedicated her life to them. She enjoyed gathering the family around her for Sunday dinners and loved her grandchildren. Ev loved tennis, hiking, and camping with her family. She was an avid reader and loved to travel on cruises with her husband and friends. In lieu of flowers, the family is requesting that you take your own family out to dinner. A viewing will be held Thursday, April 17th from 6:00–8:00 p.m. & Friday, April 18th from 9:45–10:45 a.m. at the LDS Church on 5775 S. 2700 W. Taylorsville, Utah. Funeral services will be held at the same location on Friday, April 18th at 11:00 a.m. The burial will be held at Elysian Burial Gardens 1075 E. 4580 S. SLC, Utah.

“ Mark & Jeff,
We miss seeing you and consider you great friends. So sorry to hear about your Mom's passing. May the Lord bless and comfort you and your family at this time of loss. So glad we have the true Gospel of Jesus Christ and to know that we can be with our families forever.
