

Fredrick Roscoe "Ross" Woolley

May 4, 1942 - May 19, 2020

Fredrick Roscoe "Ross" Woolley was born May 4, 1942 to Florence LaDell Lowry and Roscoe Hunter Woolley. He passed away peacefully on May 19, 2020. Ross was born and grew up in Salt Lake City, graduating from East High School where he lettered in debate and track. He earned his Bachelors degree from the University of Utah where he worked in the Upper Air Research Lab, then went to work for Kennecott Copper Mine. He went back to school and earned his Masters Degree from Northern Arizona University, and his PhD from BYU. Ross returned to the University of Utah where he worked for many years in the Family and Preventive Medicine Department then moved and held positions in medical research and education in Hawaii, California, and Texas. Ross was an active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints and served a mission to Scotland. Just before he left on his mission he met the love of his life Susan Brown. Three days after he returned from his mission she agreed to marry him and they were married in the Los Angeles temple on September 21, 1963. They had five children and were foster parents to many others. Ross is survived by his wife Susan, children; Allison (Shawn), Robert (Shari), Dianna (Austin), Richard (Andrea), and Joseph (Melissa), 17 grandchildren, and 5 great grandchildren. A graveside service will be held on Saturday, May 23 at the Ben Lomond Cemetery in North Ogden, Utah. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to either the Alzheimer's Association or your local animal shelter. Please sign and leave messages on the Premier Funeral Services website.

“ Sympathy for your loss.
Ross helped me another classmate get to see the New York Philharmonic Orchestra perform at the Tabernacle in the early 1960's. I still appreciate and remember it.

“ Dear Woolley family,
We were so saddened to hear of the passing of our dear friend, Ross. We have known and loved him and Susan for many years----going clear back to the 1960's. We fondly remember when we were neighbors in Provo---such wonderful, fun memories! We have missed that association since we all moved away from each other. Our thoughts and prayers are with all of you as you go through this difficult time. We know that Heavenly Father will bless and comfort you and that one day, you will all be together again. We love you all!
Love, Ken and Terry Harker
