Ina Eunice Huntsman Squire

Ina Eunice Huntsman Squire, angel wife, mother, grandmother and great grandmother quietly slipped away to her heavenly home on October 3, 2018. She lived the gospel as a faithful member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. Her greatest mission and calling in life was raising a righteous family. She was a constant source of light to her children and friends despite living for many years in blindness.

Ina was born May 3, 1927 in Torrey, Utah. She was the daughter of James Clarence Huntsman and Myrtle Violet Morrill Huntsman and the fourth of five children. She attended Snow College, USU, and BYU, and although she never graduated from college she was always learning. In addition to her schooling she served a mission in the Central States.

While at BYU she met Meade Squire and on February 27, 1953 they were sealed in the Manti temple for time and all eternity. They had twelve children who became their life work and pride and joy. Ina was a homemaker who put family first in everything. She was a loving mother and taught her children to love the gospel, to work hard, and to serve the Lord.

Her church callings have been many and varied throughout the years. She served in the Primary, Sunday School, Young Women, and Relief Society presidencies and taught Gospel Doctrine. However, her crowning calling was to serve in the Manti Temple as an ordinance worker which she did for 14 years. Later in her life she served a mission with her sweetheart in the Canada Halifax Mission.

Ina is survived by her children: Dianne (Don Christensen), Rosemary (Doug Cornish), LaRee (Boyd Parkinson), LuAnn (Daniel Adams), Janet (Paul Muehlmann), Sandra (Kevin Steele), Susan (Eric Harrison), John (Monique Luster), Glen (Stacey Shelley), Richard (Roxanne Nalder), Ralph (Annette Cox) and by her sister Rhea (Lars Nelson). She was preceded in death by her husband Meade and her son David (Alison Weed), her mother

Myrtle and father James, her brother Lavar (Lillie Rymer), and sisters Joy Clarke, and Zella (Merrill Snow).

“ She was a wonderful second mother to me. She was accepting, kind and never hesitated to give the help I needed. Her influence still stands in my life. Her quiet words of encouragement linger. I will always be grateful to Ina Squire.

“ Dear Ina and I were visiting teaching partners many years ago. I loved visiting with her. She always had a compliment and an uplifting thought to share. I marveled at her ability to raise a large righteous family and she always encouraged me to be a good mom. Heaven has gained a special angel.

“ Ina Squire was one of the most beautiful, angelic women to ever walk the earth. Everyone who ever knew her loved her and loved Meade Squire also. What a privilege to have known them, and their outstanding family. We send love to the Squire family, and our prayers are with you all. Carlos and Vivian Adams

“ We are so sorry for the loss of your mother. I always enjoyed talking to her and will always remember the advice she gave me when I was a young mom. One thing she said was when it came to children if it doesn't affect their eternal salvation don't be too hard on them--it helped me to relax a bit and enjoy them. Thanks Ina
