“ Janice was a valued and trusted friend. We spent lots of time together in the 20 years I've known her. We spoke on the phone every day and many times more than once. She had a hilarious sense of humor and could make me laugh even if I was having a bad day. I miss her already but I know I'll see her again.

“ Dear Evan,
Linda and I visited Janice on many occasions. We had some wonderful conversations with her, many punctuated with her dry humor. We so much enjoyed spending time with her. Please accept our sympathy and condolences.

“ Jan has been my friend since we moved into the condos in 1995. We used to have condo ladies luncheons for new owners, birthdays, etc. Her sense of humor was always entertaining!
Six years ago she saved her money & hosted over 25 of us at her 80th birthday dinner at the Golden Corral. I miss her & her sense of humor!
