

Jay Fenton Syndergaard

March 26, 1961 - February 21, 2021

Jay Fenton Syndergaard passed away peacefully on Sunday, February 21, 2021 after suffering from a hemorrhagic stroke. Jay was born on Sunday, March 26, 1961, and was a kind and loving person who spent his free time assisting his mother and other widows in the neighborhood with gardening and other needs. He is preceded in death by his father, Merrill Jay Syndergaard. He is survived by his mother, JoAnne Fenton Syndergaard, sisters Julie Gerth (Todd) and Jodi Moench (Niclas), and brother, Jeremiah Syndergaard. For those wishing to pay their respects, there will be a viewing on Tuesday, February 23 from 12 p.m. to 1 p.m. at Premier Funeral Services, 67 East 8000 South, Midvale, Utah followed by a burial at Mount Olivet Cemetery, 1342 East 500 South Salt Lake City, Utah. Taken from us too soon, he will be sorely missed.

Tribute Wall

CN

“ I worked with Jay at FedEx. He was one of the nicest people I've ever met. He would help anybody. One winter, we both got stuck in Beaver for the night. In the morning when I went out to my truck, he already had it running and the heater turned on so it was nice and warm. I'm gonna miss him a lot. I'm so so sorry for your great loss. All of us at FedEx were sad to hear of his passing. Thank you for sharing him with us.

Christy Nacey - February 24, 2021 at 10:25 AM

JT

“ Jay was very Generous and fun to talk with. His sudden passing is a shock. RIP Jay

Johnny Tremain - February 23, 2021 at 10:10 AM

CA

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Jay's family. Knew Jay, went to school with him, He worked with Borge Andersen for a while and we knew him there. He was always a kind and caring man. - Rick and Cheryl Asper

Cheryl Asper - February 23, 2021 at 08:43 AM