

Joe Richard Jiron

July 31, 1939 - January 30, 2019

Joe R. Jiron, or Richard as we knew him, passed away peacefully in his sleep on January 30, 2019. Richard was born July 31, 1939 to Abe and Laura Jiron in Salt Lake City.

Richard was very independent all his life, he could afford to be, for he never married. He loved life and lived it to the fullest. He loved his family dearly and would do anything for them, which he did often. He liked to go on vacations and always took them with family members, although he had many friends.

He had many interests and enjoyed every one of them, also developed expertise in each, he was always one of the best in what he did. His hobbies were, fishing, hunting, shooting pool, playing cards with family and friends and also in casinos.

He came from a very large family, but is only survived by his sister Judy and brothers Leonard and Abe (Jr.) and many nephews and nieces. His niece "Precious" and her family took care of Richard in his declining years. Many thanks to them.

Comments

“ Uncle Rich I have so many memories of you thru out my whole life you taught me how to fish I caught my first fish with you then u threw a fish still alive at me and told me to pick it up and hit it on a rock I was freaking out and you came out of the water picked it up hit it on a rock then you looked at me like I was crazy I was looking at you the same way.

Presh - February 13, 2019 at 01:57 PM

“ Anyway I got a fish hook stuck in my foot and every time we went over a bump it would hurt I told you and you said were almost there your ok when we stopped you came around to me and said look at that I looked up and you ripped it out of my foot you could tell I was going to cry all you said we don't be a cry baby you can take it and I didn't cry. Those are just a couple of memories when I was small. I have so many good memories and memories of u being an ass and ones that i still think about and lmao. I get up and I still go straight to your room to see if your awake, I look in and your gone so I go back to my room missing you. I took care of you so long I don't know what to do with myself I just want you to know I love you and I miss you even the ass parts of you. Good bye uncle Rich you will be greatly missed love Presht

Presh - February 13, 2019 at 01:44 PM

“ I love you uncle rich you will forever be missed! Thank you for everything you ever did for me. Have fun fishing Nino

sasha - February 04, 2019 at 04:30 PM

“ 1 file added to the tribute wall

sasha - February 04, 2019 at 04:23 PM

“ 1 file added to the album Memories Album

Presh - February 04, 2019 at 03:10 PM