“ I can't breath I can't think and I haven't been able to sleep the last few days without crying to sleep. Dad I cannot believe it's going to be year tomorrow. Where has the time gone? How has it been 375 days when it still doesn't seem real. I miss your smile and your hugs & voice. It still hurts I I still feel lost and heartbroken. I don't know if that will ever change. I love you, I love you, I love you!

“ Dad from the time I could remember I was dancing on your feet as a little girl and staying up late eating snacks while watching WWF. You are the reason I love music and to dance. Because that was our thing even when I grew up dancing in the living room while listening to Santana. You were always there when I needed you; you would do anything you could for us kids. Please come visit me in my dreams and let me know you are here watching over us. I love you dad and I miss you more than I could ever explain. My heart feels broken.

“ Uncle Jose you were so funny. I remember growing up, hanging out in front of your house listening to oldies and you would make us laugh. I will miss you. R.I.P. Go fly with the Angels and watch over your family. My condolences to the family. Love all of you.
