“ Julie was the most energetic, positive, beautiful lady that I've have the opportunity to call friend. Every day she came to work, made a point of going to every desk, every row and say high with a big smile on her face. She was sunshine. She lifted you up, was not afraid to be sikky, easily laughed at herself, would take on any challenge. She got a lot of crap from me about her beloved Cowboys, but she took it and have back as well. Julie loved her family, was very proud of them and adored her husband Kevon. They were truly friends, partners and so on love. Julie was easy to love, a warrior. We bonded quickly because I have also battled cancer. I shared with her once about a belief that before we were born to this earth, we chose the challenges that we would face here on earth. We shared the same determination to ask God about the truth of this, Julie joked, "you mean I stood in the same line three times, you bet I'm going to be asking". My retort, "that's why we are still here, he doesn't want to face the rath. My dear, sweet beautiful, Julie, give them hell !!! You can now fly with the angles, pain free, you will always be in my heart, I will love you forever.

“ Julie, you came into my children's lives 33 years ago when they were still young and impressionable and you loved them as if they were your own from the beginning. They love you too. Always have and always will. That is a testament that stands the test of time.

Over the years we became good friends and could tell each other anything. I cherish those memories. We laughed together and cried together and sometimes complained about the same thing to each other. You were a wonderful step mom to my boys and I will be forever grateful to you for the love and commitment you gave to them.

I love you like a sister and will carry you always in my heart. You left us too soon, but my admiration for your strength and courage knows no bounds. Fly free of pain among the angels knowing you are loved and will never be forgotten. Linda
