

Lateasha Marie Snow

September 17, 1991 - January 18, 2021

Our Sweet LaTeasha Marie Snow, age 29, passed away with her family by her side on January 18, 2021, after a courageous and hard fight from complications due to a stroke. She was born on Sept 17, 1991 in Salt Lake City Utah to Michael Gardner Snow and Tammy Ann Austin.

Teasha had a beautiful heart and a smile and eyes that could light up any room. All that knew her could feel the unconditional love she had for them. She loved her family and was always up for an adventure. Her spunky personality will be cherished and greatly missed.

Teasha is survived by the love of her life Trever J Palmer, sweet children; Conner, Kayci, and Jewell, Father; Mike, Sister; Alyssa, Grandparents, as well as many other family and friends who will miss her dearly. Preceded in death by her mother Tammy.

Due to Covid-19 and careful consideration and thought, the family has decided on a private memorial for Teasha. The family strongly encourages everyone to honor her and pay your respects in whichever way you see appropriate. The family will be having a Celebration of life at a later date.

Condolences can be sent to the family at www.premierfuneral.com

“ Although many years have passed since I have been graced with the presence of LaTeasha, I was both shocked and saddened to hear of her passing. A handful of memories growing up flooded me in an instant and I will always remember her and the good times we shared. She truly was such a bright soul and I'm grateful for the time I did spend with her while she was here. I remember her dad Mike teaching me the correct way to eat french fries when I was over for a sleepover, something that I have actually taught a handful of people over the years. Her smile will be missed but never forgotten. My thoughts and prayers are with her family at this time. God bless you all.

“ I met Lateasha Snow when I was in the sixth grade at Brookwood Elementary. I have watched her grow into an AMAZING mother, woman and all around beautiful person and friend to so many. I love that I got to see her be such a strong, loving mom to her beautiful children and family and I will always look up to that. I know you loved your family so much and my heart is broken that your gone Teash. Say hi to Tammy for me. I love and miss you guys. Forever and always. Cookie.

“ O Teasha it's only been a few days but it feels like forever. We will miss you every single day until we are together again. Your sparkling eyes, big smile and feisty personality are cherished memories. There is some comfort in knowing you are with your mama who you missed so very much. Give her a hug for me! Fly high with the angels sweet girl,until we meet again. Love you Teash XOXO

“ Sweet little Teash, I have tried to come up with the proper words to express what I am feeling, but have realized those words just don't exist. What I do know, is I am so very grateful we have such a close family, and so very grateful you are a part of it. You had a genuine love for your family, never leaving a get together or hanging up the phone with out an "I love you". Your smile is so bright that it was not only seen, but could be felt. I can't even picture you without a huge smile on your face. I truly belive your smile is bright enough to be felt from heaven. So please smile down often, I know in my heart we will be able to feel it. I love you!

“ This just seems all so unreal and not possible. No words or actions can take away the pain and sadness so many are feeling.
I know you were welcomed into your momma's loving arms, but we will miss you here with us!
We have a strong loving family and will rally together to help support and comfort each other everyday, forever.
We love you Teash, watch over us from above.

“ I met and became friends with Teasha and her family through unusual circumstances - Brought together by a common bond of love for Conner and Kayci, she let me onto her team and into her cheering section. I find myself, 5 years later, still marveling at her choice to do so and I am so grateful for our continued relationship.

Much of our communication in the last few years was through text and FB messaging, getting and giving life updates; giving glimpses into hers and the kids' lives and opportunities to see the kids as they grow have and will always be so special to me. From Halloween costumes to new baby Jewel, Teash allowed me to be a part of their family, I feel so blessed for these opportunities.

My heart is so broken for you, Teash, I am heartbroken at losing you. I am heartbroken for your sweet family. I am so heartbroken at how much I know they will miss you - these past several days I have found myself breathless from sorrow for their pain and wanting so much to give your kids big hugs as their tiny selves try to make sense of saying goodbye.

Thank you Teasha, for letting me be a part of your story. You will remain so near and dear to my heart.

“ The memory of her coming into the store that I work at and yelling my name from across the way to try to get my attention. Anytime anyone yelled my name in the store I knew it was always teasha. Her smiling and walking towards me asking me how I'm doing. The times when I'm waiting at the bus stop and I hear somebody honking like crazy and yelling girl get in the car. definitely always have something smart to say but that's why I loved Her. She definitely was a strong women don't ever forget that about her. Is definitely going to be weird not hearing her yell my name across the store anymore. But that is a really good memory that I have of her shall we made me laugh every time she yelled My Name Across the store. Rest well teasha we all love you.
