

Lucinda Ann Gottfredson Bird

July 13, 1962 - February 18, 2015

After a long battle of health issues, Lucinda peacefully passed away at the age 52. Lucinda was a very nurturing, caring, and loving mother, daughter, sister, aunt, and friend. Lucinda was the type of person that would do anything for anyone. Lucinda was born on Friday the 13th in Provo, UT to Lynn and Nancy Gottfredson. Lucinda is survived by her Husband Ken Bird, daughter Kayla Savio, Sisters Diane Nave and Debbie (Richard) Hathaway, many nieces, nephews, extended family, and close friends. Lucinda is preceded in death by her daughter Audrey Corinne Savio. There will be no services per Lucinda's request. In lieu of flowers, please read a book in Lucinda's memory!

“ Dear Diane, Deborah, Namcy and Lynn and the rest of her family, I just heard today of Lucinda's passing. I'm so sorry for your loss. My thoughts and prayers are with you all! I have so many fond memories of growing up together in Sandy! May the Lord bless you all and help you through this very hard time! Love, Ela D. Jensen

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Watching Lucinda grow into a delightful young woman was a joy. Her love of books and knowledge was apparent at an early age, and to carry that forward to become a librarian was only natural. She helped me with numerous tasks that I would have been lost without her help. I hope everyone is aware of what a special person she truly was. My wish and prayer is that she is in a comfortable and peaceful place that she deserves to be. May her husband and daughter find peace knowing she is not suffering any longer. And a special thanks to her niece, Lindsey Patrick for all the time and LOVE she put into caring for her.

“ Lynn, Nancy and family we are so sad over the loss of Lucinda. She always greeted us with a smile and was always fun to chuckle with. You are all in our thoughts and we will carry her in our hearts forever.
