“ Though I didn't know Mark well, I did admire his devotion and commitment to serving faithfully as a member of the Army Guard and his commitment to making the world a better, safer place.

“ Mark was one of my roommates at BYU, and was a good friend. He was always genuine, kind, and loving to all of those that knew him. We lost touch for many years, but were able to reconnect on facebook. This is also how I learned of his passing.

I really regret not staying in touch better or being able to get together personally. I will always have warm memories of Mark though and our happy times in the BYU 3rd Ward. I love seeing the happy pictures of him and his family and will continue offering prayers for the blessing and comfort.
