Marlae Rindlisbacher

1949 – 2016

Family and friends mourn the passing of a faithful and remarkable woman, Marlae Rindlisbacher. She passed away at her home on March 12, 2016 following a courageous battle with ovarian cancer.

Marlae was born April 2, 1949, to Lowell Eliason Call and Carolyn Johnson Call. Her early years were spent traveling throughout the world as her father served as an air force pilot in the military.

She graduated from Orem High School, class of 1967. She worked at Brigham Young University for 43 years, and also earned her BA degree at BYU. In 1972 she started working in the department of Instructional Graphics at the university, ending her career with the BYU Office of Information Technology in September 2015.

Marlae married one of her many employees, Michael Rindlisbacher, November 28, 1975 in the Provo, Utah Temple.

The joy of her life was finally realized when two wonderful children, Heather and Benjamin joined their family. The next milestone happened last year when she became a grandmother to Andrew, Aubrey and Adrian Rindlisbacher.

Marlae was a faithful and active member of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints and bore a strong testimony of its truthfulness. She served faithfully and lovingly in many callings, most recently as Relief Society President of the Orem Canyon View 2nd Ward.

Marlae had a special gift of listening and caring for others. She enjoyed art, music, gardening, creating, organizing and spending time with family, especially her grandchildren.

She is survived by her husband Mike, her children, Heather Rindlisbacher and Benjamin (Trisha) Rindlisbacher, her grandchildren and her siblings Carolyn Janene (William) Everitt; Scott J (Victoria) Call; Clair Johnson (Sandy) Call; Lowell Monte Call; Val Johnson (Carrie) Call; Jacquelyn Olsen; and Lori Waters.

Funeral services will be 11:00 am, Saturday, March 19, 2016 at the LDS Chapel located at 762 East 1200 North, Orem, UT with a viewing at the church Friday from 6:00 to 8:00 pm and Saturday prior to services from 9:45 to 10:45 am. Interment at the Orem City Cemetery.

“ I worked with Marlae years ago in the stake m-men and gleaners organization of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints. She was fun to work with and a real support to me in my responsibilities, one of which was a regional fireside of the gleaners. About 14 years ago after my husband and I moved our family back to Orem, I was surprised and grateful to run into Marlae one day at Macey’s Grocery store. We caught up a little on each other’s lives. She was as kind as ever. She told me her married name, but unfortunately I soon forgot it. Today I remembered Marlae for some reason along with her married name. I decided to look it up on the internet and discovered this memorial. I am glad for the fond memories I have of a good woman.

“ Aunt Marlae was a constant in my life. Our Call family gatherings were always attended by her and Uncle Mike. They were always involved and eager to involve others. Marlae was very much like my Grandma Call. Inquisitive and interested in others, no matter how you walked your walk in life; no matter how different your life was from their own, you were valuable and loveable. People like Grandma Call and Marlae are rare. It’s normal human behavior to be self interested, roaming the world to discover ones value and importance. Marlae never seemed to be focused on such things... she was genuinely, authentically, more interested in discovering the value and importance in others. I am so fortunate to have known both these ladies, to have been loved by them, appreciated by them, and influenced by them during my lifetime. I have deeply grieved the loss of my Grandparents generation. There are a few great aunts and uncles who are hanging on, who I value immensely. But Marlae was the first of my parents generation to pass. This was a rather unwelcome milestone for me. I hope I can find more optimism in my own generation, and make it a better one by striving to be like my Grandparents, and my beloved Aunt Marlae. Your absence will be felt sweet lady. I love how you reminded me so often that I was the first brand new newborn you had ever held. You wanted me to know how special I was to you, and how much my birth meant to you. Thank you for loving me. For showing me by example how to love others without conditions. I promise to let your influence shape my future, and never forget you or what you stood for.

“ Marlae was always inclusive. I remember my first time meeting the whole Rindlisbacher family and feeling very shy. However, she came right up to me and helped me to feel included in the family. I could always count on her for making me feel welcome and taking an interest in me. I will miss that about her.

“ I will miss aunt Marlae for many reasons... she always took an interest in my life and would ask me lots of questions whenever I saw her. I always appreciated that. A fond memory I have with her is from April 2015. It was my mom's (Cathy) birthday, and we went with grandma and aunt Marlae and uncle Mike to the Thanksgiving Point gardens during the tulip festival. Mom, grandma and Mike were waiting for a golf cart to become available, so Marlae and I started on the trails together while the others would catch up to us. We enjoyed walking and commented about the beautiful scenery together. As strangers would pass, Marlae would take time to stop and talk to them. I remember admiring how friendly she was and it cheered up my spirit being with her. Together we spotted a beautiful, big owl by the waterfalls. We stopped and talked there for a while until the golf cart arrived to pick us up. I think that was the first time I actually spent some time alone with her. Although I didn't think the gardens could be more beautiful than they were that day, I can't help but think that she must be roaming around a much more heavenly garden right now and still stopping to talk with others on the way.

“ Marlae was a marvelous person. We have fond memories of her in the Young Women's organization, especially at YW Camp. She was always pleasant and cheerful. We appreciate her kindness and patience with our son, Josh and the rest of "The Wolf Pack". She will be missed. Our prayers are for her family at this hard time.

“ It was a great honor not only to know Marlae, but to work with her. She really had a genuine love for everyone, not just those she worked with. She especially loved working with the students, and I know they all loved her. She was definitely a light to each of us, that we will all miss. We love, and will miss you Marlae. Heaven is a better place because of you.
