

Nancy Carol Sperry Mecham

March 8, 1942 - December 30, 2018

After a valiant and courageous fight with cancer Nancy Carol Sperry Mecham passed away peace-fully surrounded by her family on December 30, 2018.

Nancy was born on March 8, 1942 to John and Vera Sperry. She was the oldest of four children. Nancy was raised on a farm in Shelton, Idaho where she developed her love for animals, people, life, and the gospel. Her fairy tale love story began when she met Gary Davis Mecham. They were married in the Idaho Falls Temple on June 15th, 1963, and have truly lived “happily ever after.” Together they raised six children. Nancy knew that Heavenly Father played an important role in getting her children here. Her favorite place to be was with her family making memories. One of her greatest joys was being a grandma to her twenty-two grandchildren and GG to her ten great-grandchildren. She loved creating memories with them through holiday parties, attending their many events, time at their family cabin, and summer reunions. Her cinnamon rolls and dinner rolls were a family favorite, and a must have at family gatherings.

Nancy graduated with a bachelors degree in elementary education. Her love for children led her to a teaching career of 24 years.

Nancy lived a Christ-centered life in word and deed. She will always be remembered for her kindness and quiet ministering acts. Nancy loved to serve others and could often be found at your door with a plate of cookies or some kind of treat. She was loved by those who knew her. Nancy’s love for her family, friends, and the Lord were evident in her everyday actions and interactions with those around her.

We’d like to thank the many family and friends who have visited, sent letters, and called. We appreciate the acts of kindness, love, and support that have been shown to our family during this difficult time.

Nancy was preceded in death by her parents John and Vera Sperry and grandson Cyle Van Komen. She is survived by her loving husband Gary D. Mecham and children, Scott (Stephanie) Mecham, Brad (Becca) Mecham, Randy (Debbie) Mecham, Ranae

(Brad) Finch, Heidi (Scott) Merritt, Rick (Jennifer) Mecham, twenty-two grandchildren, and ten great-grandchildren. Her siblings Sharon (Bruce) Parker, Ron Sperry, Kent (Debra) Sperry.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday, January 5, 2019, at 11:00 am at the Syracuse 7th ward meeting house, 1625 S 1100 W Syracuse UT. A viewing will be held on Friday evening, January 4th from 5:30 pm - 7:30 pm at the same location and Saturday from 9:30 am to 10:30 am prior to services. Interment-Syracuse Cemetery.

“ So sorry for your loss, Gary. I wish no one ever had to experience that separation. Time dulls the pain, but it doesn't make it any easier. Nancy was a beautiful, sweet lady, and I was privileged to call her my friend. I wish the best of everything to you and your family. Love,
Kathy Holt

“ Nancy was amazing! I will never forget a couple of years ago in the early morning she came knocking on the door. When I opened it to my surprise there was the most beautiful (and yummy) strawberry pie! "Happy Birthday she exclaimed!" with a big smile on her face. Even when she wasn't feeling well she was always thinking of others. I also remember many years ago when I was going through nursing school, I had to take a theater class to fill some humanities credits and I needed to go to a live play at Weber State. I had to go see the play named, "Red Noses" which I had no idea what it was about. The girls dressed very skimpy and after we got out of the play she said, "I feel just like I went to an R rated play." Brad had just come home from his mission and was going to school. She said, "I sure hope Brad never goes to these theater programs." We laughed and vowed we wouldn't do that any more! Once again when I was single and had no one to go with she was there for me. She is the most Christ like person I know and when she bore her testimony you could feel the spirit so strong and know of her LOVE for our Heavenly Father and the Savior! She lives on and I hope that when I cross the veil that she is one of the first ladies I meet! I Love her! Much Love to Gary and the Mecham family! Alice Bosworth

“ What an amazing woman Nancy Mecham has been all her life. When our children were young we often spent Sunday evenings together making and eating delicious caramel popcorn. I still use her recipe every Christmas.
She was always busy, industrious and concerned about others. She was such a great cook, and she made such delicious food. When I was called many years ago to do the food for a Laurels camp, I needed help and Nancy was the first person that came to mind. We had so much fun and worked so hard. She was never afraid of hard work, whether it was gardening, fixing up her house, or helping someone else. She was one of those women we revere and love forever.
We spent time together at our cabin and at theirs. Gary and Marty loved their BYU teams, and spend many times playing ball together. Gary and Nancy were both such great examples for good in this world. We will always cherish our special memories and fun times spent with the Mechams. Bless you Gary and kids, nothing could be greater for you than to have had this beautiful wife and mother, who loved you all unconditionally!!

Love,
Marty and Camille Fisher

“ I was the school secretary at Lincoln Elementary in Layton, where Nancy taught. We became good friends and in the mornings, before school began, her and I would go walking & talking. In the bad weather we would walk the halls, but in good weather, we would walk outside. Nancy was such a sweet, wonderful friend. We had such good visits as we walked and at other times. I grew to love her.

“ There are no words to express my love for her. Such a wonderful friend. The most selfless person I have ever known. She always put everyone else's needs before her own.

She took care of my newborn child when I was too sick to take care of him myself. She made me a dress to wear to a special event because I didn't have the money to buy one. After her mother passed she gave me her beautiful clothes because she knew I needed them.

We did everything together. We canned the food from her garden which she always shared with me. We gleaned fields, refinished furniture, made crafts, went shopping and had good talks. We helped each other through rough times. Still vivid memories after so many years.

She chastised me several times for moving away and leaving her behind. I loved her dearly. She was like a sister to me.

Nancy make way. I will see you in the other side.

“ Nancy was my mentor teacher, role model as a mother, and friend. She treated me like family. We spent a lot of time together before and after school, sharing many ideas of ways to reach and teach our students. We also shared our love and concerns about our kids and became very close. I also remember having fun with Nancy, Gary and other teacher friends at her home and cabin. We love playing cards and visiting. Her grandkids would come over to the school to help her set up her classroom and pop in and help her with setting up her classroom every nine weeks, at our Lincoln Elementary, Year Round School! I became close to her granddaughter, Lindsay and even persuaded Nancy to let her help me too! She would say, “ Lindsay is here to help me Hehehe, and then Lindsay would come over and help me too! Lindsay would help me like she was part of my family and although she has moved away and has her hubby and two little boys, she still has my number and keeps me posted! Nancy and Gary and their kids, grandkids, know how important family is and through their examples, have mentored me as I really had a very disfunctional family growing up and when I joined the Church Of Jesus Christ, I looked for mentors to help me raise my children in the gospel. When I began teaching, my family moved away from Richmond, Utah and I was single with my three kids. We really didn’t have family and Nancy took me under her wings! I learned so much from this wonderful lady and her family! I will miss her but I understand God’s plan and look forward to seeing her again. I want to thank the Mecham’s for sharing their mother, wife, and grandmother, with me and my family as she taught me more than anyone , how to be a better mom, and grandma to my family by her love and example!

“ Where do you begin on memories of this amazing lady. I will remember the fun times we had playing together at family reunions. Reading scriptures and being part of family prayers when I would come visit. Her happy and loving spirit that she shared with one and all. I will love her forever and am grateful that she will be my aunt for eternity.
