

Nina Beth Sevy Harding

November 29, 1933 - June 15, 2013

Our beloved mother, Nina Beth Sevy Harding , 79, of Salt Lake City died June 15th, 2013 in her home of natural causes. She was born in Panguitch, UT on 11/29/33 the daughter of Blaine and Fenella Sevy and was the youngest of nine children and how she got her name. She graduated from Panguitch HS and was married to Vincent Dewayne Harding 6/14/52. Mom was a humanitarian and interested in everyone she met, wanting to know their life history. She was a member of the Relief Society and Sunday School, and Daughters of Utah Pioneers (Mill Creek and Mtn View Camps) for many years. She had many caregivers in the end. Mom also enjoyed quilting, sewing, reading and sharing pictures with her family. She is survived by her 4 children: Michael (Shannon) Provo, Mary Ann (Rich) West Jordan, David (Stephanie) Blue Bell, Ninette (Dave) West Jordan and 31 great grandchildren. She is preceded in death by her husband, Vincent Dewayne Harding and her 8 siblings. A celebration in memory of Nina will be held on Wednesday, June 19th, 2013 at the Sunset Ridge 9th Ward, 8137 S. Echo Ridge Drive (6700 W) from 4:30-6:30 pm.

Comments

“ We love you grandma! You have been such an example in so many things. Thank you for being you and teaching me how important family history is. We will miss visiting with you several times a week. Thank you for all that you have done for our family.

Vu, Heather, Nicholas and Makenzie Pham - June 20, 2013 at 12:18 AM

“ Dear Friends; I am so sorry to hear about Nina. She was a dear Friend. We used to go Visiting Teaching together and we shared many good things. I am sorry I won't be able to be with you at her Services. I want you all to know we still think of all of you and I send my prayer for all of Nina's family to find Peace and comfort in your love for your parents. Love, Maxine Christensen

Maxine Christensen - June 19, 2013 at 12:51 AM

“ I am so sad for the passing of my wonderful, longtime friend, Nina. She was my Utah Jazz partner, and we talked almost everyday, especially during Jazz season. I love her.

Penny Murphy - June 18, 2013 at 11:18 AM