

Patricia Nina Vicencio

November 29, 1935 - July 4, 2021

Patricia Nina Vicencio

On July the 4th, of 2021, Patricia Nina Vicencio passed on from this life at the age of 85. As a native to Chile, she was born in Valparaíso on November 29th, of 1935. Her parents, Abel Villalobos and Maria Santibañez Orrego, preceded her across the veil. She is now, at long last, reunited with her beloved husband of over fifty years, Hector Marcial Vicencio; and with his parents, Luis Alberto Vicencio and Margarita Rosa (Figuroa) Vicencio, who Pat loved dearly. Her siblings, Silvia, Marina, and Liliana await her with open arms as well.

Patricia and Hector began their family together in Chile, but would eventually seek a new life in the United States. In 1971, Patricia managed to bring the young children to the city of Chicago, where Hector had begun working to accommodate their arrival. They couldn't have known then, but this choice would result in a beautiful and culturally diverse family; all of which remain grateful for their courage and astute nature. Several years later, they would go on to settle down in North Ogden, Utah. Here, they cultivated a wonderful home absolutely brimming with joy and laughter. Family, friends, or visitors could feel the palpable love and comforts in this household, and especially in the food. It overflowed into the Garden, where Patricia and Hector both devoted themselves to the paradise that flourishes there now.

Patricia is survived by her dear sister, Marta; by her four children, Viviana (Held) Vicencio, Marci (Kent) Palmer, Chris "Pato" (Marilee) Vicencio, and Priscilla (Chris) Allred. Each with children, and some with grand-children, who will all miss Pat immensely. She had many friends, both near and far, who shall miss her and sing her praises. She will be remembered as many things; to name a few, a loving mother, a disciplined worker, a skilled cook, and a charming storyteller. May she rest in limitless love and peace from now until infinity.

Donations towards burial costs are being accepted via Venmo @Priscilla-Allred, and flowers can be sent to the family home, located at:

“ I loved your mother so very much. She was a special friend. We had fun times with Belva Bodily and Carol Woodbury chatting about our wonderful families. Will miss her if just chatting on the telephone. Much love to you all! Merry Pitt

“ I grew up in the home behind her, our yards connected and as a little girl I loved visiting with her and hector over the fence, they would invite me over and show me treasures and share treats as well as walk me through the garden which I believe sparked my love for plants to this day. She made me lemon bars because she knew I loved them. She always made me feel special and loved. When I lost my pet turtle they looked for it and was concerned for my feelings of losing a pet. While on their mission they sent me pretty, bright colored postcards sharing their testimony. I will always appreciate the impact she had on my childhood, my own neighborhood grandmother.
