“ Uncle Moroni, always a sweet soft spoken man, we were all so happy when he showed up with his bus full of cousins. What an amazing man, such a great father and hard worker. It is amazing how dedicated he was to his family and business. He is a great example for us all, he will be sorely missed.

“ Uncle Moroni dragged out the long strong rope and lined us all up for tug-a-war. he was always initiating volley ball, races, rope pulls and other games where all kids were involved as the extended family reunited. He was so kind and enthusiastic and I always saw the lines of my father in his face. Until we meet again in that grand family reunion in the blue skies.
