

Raymond Scott Dunbar

February 5, 1967 - March 1, 2020

Raymond Scott Dunbar of Provo passed away Sunday, March 1, 2020. Ray was born in West Covina, California, on February 5, 1967 to Charles and Lillian Dunbar.

He is survived by his wife, Sandra Engle Dunbar, and their children: Rheanna, Patrick and Faith. Many other family members mourn his passing.

In consideration of the restrictions of gatherings due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the public services for Raymond have been cancelled. Private services will be held by his family. Thank you for your thought and prayers at this time.

Comments

“ I remember how Ray always had a smile he liked everyone. Him and I have been friends all through school years and beyond. Love and miss you Ray may you always Rest In Peace. So until we meet again dear friend have save me a place.

Teresa Kilpatrick - July 30, 2020 at 10:03 AM

“ My deepest condolences to the family. I have been friends with Ray, since Jr. High School. He was outspoken and never afraid to take a stand. I am saddened by his sudden departure.

Ephraim Benjamin - March 17, 2020 at 10:29 AM

“ Thank you Ephraim for leaving a few words. I was glad to see at least one person had left a thought.

Susan Dunbar

Susan Dunbar-Wienke - June 15, 2020 at 07:12 PM

“ I will miss you little brother. so sorry you couldn't stay with us longer. I love you bro.

Susan Dunbar-Wienke - June 15, 2020 at 07:14 PM