We grieve the loss of Roseanne Wilde Anderson, who has returned to her Father in Heaven on December 28th, 2021 after a brave battle with breast cancer. She is survived by her husband Stephen Anderson; her daughter Alayna Rose; her parents Rosemary and Leland Clair Wilde; and her brothers Chris (spouse-Jen), Jeremy (Spouse-Amy), Ben (spouse-Chalyce) and Tim (Spouse-Sara).

Rose was born in Murray, Utah on May 9th, 1972. During her life she enjoyed using her artistic skills and gifts to create keepsake and beautiful items. She was admired for her angelic voice in song. Rose carried a great compassionate love for all animals. She enjoyed every opportunity to care for and nurture the dogs that she was often entrusted to dog sit. She often mentioned dog sitting as the greatest job she ever wanted besides being a mom.

Rose was known for her unwavering commitment to the principles that she believed and trusted in. That was evident in how she was determined to live according to her choice amidst incredible health challenges even unto the last of her days. During her struggle against cancer, Rose became focused on and filled with an immense and unconditional love for her family and dear friends. Rose was grateful for and enjoyed spending every minute of time with those she loved helping her forget about any pain she felt. Rose was committed to devoting her time and love to her husband and daughter and ensuring they spent as much time together as a family as possible.

Her family wants to extend their immense gratitude and love to all the family, friends, and loved ones who provided care, love and support to her during her illness. They feel assured that Rose is now at peace and experiencing the joy and rest that she deserves. Rose loved, Rose is loved, and Rose will be missed.
