“ *My deepest sympathy and condolences to all of the family of this Beautiful Lady Sharon,
I have so many memories of Sharon at my mother's house. Sharon was A true blessing to our family when she became a live in care giver along with the assistance of her daughter for my Mother Helen, The obituary is written so beautifully!*

I too remember Sharon's warm homemade bread coming out of the oven. Sharon would bake for my mother, the homemade meals that were absolutely delicious. I don't think we could have ever found a more compassionate loving caregiver ! Sharon was there through my mother's end of life process. Sharon told me She didn't want my mother to eat any thing but good homemade cooking. She would cater, pamper my mother like no ever could imagine.

I grew to love her 💖💖💖

The nights we sat up talking, we would go outside sit and talk about different stories.

I remember going up to your house Sean and Abby visiting Sharon, seeing all of the plants in her Room.

She had so many stories about her children grandchildren .

There is so much more I'd like to say about this wonderful woman my dear friend Sharon.

The time I saw Sharon at Saint Mark's Hospital. I was going to an appointment , she was going to an appointment.

It was within the last year.

We rode up in the elevator. We talked, I hadn't seen her for a long time.

Heaven gained a true angel 🙏

You are mother was truly an angel on Earth.

As it is so hard to lose a mother, Grandmother, Great grandmother.
