“ My grandma is the absolute sweetest lady. I love her so dearly and one thing I know without a doubt is how much she loves me and my family. When I was a little kid she would let my sister and I come over every Friday and or Saturday night to play and hangout. We would play dress up and Cinderella. My most favorite memories of being with her are going to the mall during the weekend and shopping. We would ride the carousel and go to The Olive Garden. That is her absolute favorite place to eat. I will forever cherish those memories and will always know she is with me through everything. She is such a bright and cheerful lady and never fails to make people smile. I love you more then anything grandma and I hope you know how much you mean to me and everyone. We all will cherish the moments that we had with you and we look forward to being in your arms again.

“ Sharren loved little children, especially her own children and grandchildren. She taught many neighborhood children in Primary and Sunday School. They were always greeted with a loving hug and smile, even as they grew up to be adults. I loved to visit her in her home. She loved the color pink. Her pink fingernails and blonde hair were her signature color. Heaven is welcoming a valiant spirit.

“ My name is Taylor Higbee, when we first moved into the neighborhood Sharon was the first person that made me feel really comfortable. I remember when I was little and she taught one of my classes at church and we would sometimes go to her house and she would make us pancakes while teaching that days topic. I will never forget that. Still being new and not knowing anyone, she was the first one to go above and beyond to make me feel that way. I always loved how now for the last 26yrs she always called me sweetheart. I'm so sorry for your loss Emily. Your mom was such a neat lady. If you need anything don't hesitate. Taylor Higbee

“ We knew Sharren when we all lived in Bonita, California, near San Diego. As a friend, Sharren was always loving and giving. We did lots of things together and I loved and admired her so much. She was a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. Nothing about Sharren was fake. I remember once going to a movie with her and her and our husbands. As we began watching the movie, we became aware of some bad language coming from the story. Sharren hardly waited even for a minute before she stood up and told us all that she would not watch anymore. She didn't give us a choice because she would not listen to that kind of language. I admired her greatly that she was determined to be true to her faith. I loved her very much but have not had much contact with her lately. We spoke on the phone about a month ago and she told me that she loved life and wanted to live a long time. But I rejoice that she is now in The Spirit World which she knew to be a place of peace and joy. Goodbye Sharren, I hope to join you as soon as it is time for us to follow you. “ I have so many memories of my precious mom. When Jonathan, Kathryn and I were young, she would say "Let's celebrate this day with a stick of gum!" She always found a reason to celebrate. She made sure she took each of us kids on a one on one date with her, so we could each get individual undivided attention. She loved to drive fast. She loved to wear pink lipstick and pink fingernail polish.

Since I had the blessing and honor to live with her in her last years, we grew to have a deep bond that only the 2 of us share. We were each other's confidant and best friend. I would visit with her while she sat on her bed watching tv or movies. She always loved sitting in the kitchen when I would bring home groceries and would be so excited to see what I bought and the food I brought home for her.

Mom is a very giving, generous, grateful, loving, kind person. She invited everyone into her home and always made sure they had something to eat and drink. She loved ice cream and cookies. Those were her favorites!

She loves butterflies, so when you see a butterfly, think of my precious mom.

I love you with all my heart and soul, Mom!
