

Shelly Gay Weiss

November 19, 1960 - March 28, 2018

1960 ~ 2018

Shelly Weiss passed away on Monday 26, 2018 at the age of 57 years in Salt Lake City, Utah. She is survived by her four children, twins Jack and Jessica Bucknum, Jamie Diaz and Rebekah Davis.

Shelly, second of six children, was born on November 19, 1960 in Medford, Oregon to Byron Hugh Davis and Rosemary Dorothy Stevens. Shelly excelled at all subjects in school and was thought to have a photographic memory, a gift that led to her being moved ahead one year in school. Shelly played the piano and cello and had a kind, compassionate heart. Shelly moved from Oregon to Star Valley, Wyoming where she lived a number of years before moving to Las Vegas, Nevada. When her mother fell ill, she moved to Bountiful, Utah to be closer to her family.

Comments

“ My mother was the light of my life i am proud to be her child. She taught me alot about life and I admire her even today she will always bring me joy in my memories and put a smile on face when I remember her comments . Any one who became close to her knows her funny comments. I love you mom thank you for always being with me even when u didn't deserve you. Thank you for always sticking up for me even when I was wrong. You taught me to be strong and powerful women I wish to be atleast half your strength. Rest in peace mother

Jamie Diaz - May 14, 2019 at 09:42 AM