“ I remember when Axl and I were very little we went to visit him, the only thing I remember is him chasing us around the house with his belly and his teeth hanging out, he tried to be the best grandpa he could be and I know now how much he loved all his kids and grand babies, he will truly be missed

“ I love and miss you so much grandpa Steve!! I will never forget your bitter beer face and your laugh that followed-it was one of a kind! I hope you're taking the greatest nap and having the best dreams!
