“ I hadn't talked to you in a few months because of my own health. I wish I had contacted you sooner. I'm sad to have found out today you left. Steve sure loved talking about hunting, fishing, and his grandkids. I am so glad I had the pleasure of working with him, so we could become friends. I loved listening to his stories. I kinda thought of you as a father figure. I won't forget going fishing with you and a couple times with your grandkids. You were a great man. May your family know you loved them. R.i.p my friend I hope you're catching all the big fish in heaven.
