“ Vernie, you were like a father to me. You always gave such great advice and helped me through my hardships with my family. You gave me shit quite a lot and I loved it. Thank you for taking me camping with your family and treating me like a daughter. I'm so sorry we lost touch. But I'm telling you now I love you still like a father and I'm so grateful to have known such a wonderful person. I know you are very missed by a whole lot of people and you will stay in many hearts forever. I love you Vernie. Thank you for everything you have done for me.

To Starla, Kristi, Kera, Vern, Jesse : I love you all and am and have been sending prayers your way. I know losing someone so close is the hardest thing in the world. but the pain will ease over time. I know the pain will never be completely gone but his loss will get easier to handle eventually. I will pray for your happiness and healing. I care for all of you, still, incredibly much and only wish the best for you all. I love you all, take care.

“ To my friend, brother (inlaw), and father like figure it is partially because of you as to who i am today. I will never forget you and will forever thank you. Me and my family were truly blessed to have you in our lives. I promise to forever watch over my sister and your children and to help pick up the pieces of losing you. While those of us are left on earth with your memory, I thank God for giving you peace and making you whole again. See ya on the other side Vern!

“ My first love, my friend. I miss you so very much. I know that you are whole & beautiful again. I can just see you so handsome. I'm not handling this as good as you would like. But I'm trying. Just keep wrapping your arms around me babe & holding me up. Until my last breath I will love you. I know you will save my seat and when my time comes, our spirits will fly together. Be at peace, until we meet again my endless love.
