

William Fenton Booth

April 21, 1929 - December 11, 2014

William Fenton Booth passed away Dec 11, 2014 of congestive heart failure. Bill was born April 21, 1929 at home to Corris Booth and Ethel May Josephine Langfitt Booth in Sarona Wisconsin. He was the ninth child of 10 children. Bill grew up on a farm where he worked hard with his eight brothers. Bill had a older sister but she died as a baby. As young man he moved to Clinton Iowa where he joined the The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saint with two of his brothers Everett and Lewis Booth.

While in Clinton he began his career in auto mechanics. He continued in this career until he retired. He then worked part time at the Utah State Penitentiary teaching auto mechanics to the inmates. After joining the church he met and fell in love with his eternal sweetheart Carolyn Joyce Byrant. They were married on October 6, 1955. After they married they lived in Davenport Iowa where they had their first two children. He was invited by his brother Everett to Utah where they owned and operated the old Sinclair gas station on 800 North in Orem. Later they were joined by their brother Lewis where they work together running the station.

While living in Orem they had four more children. In 1967 they moved to California where Bill worked as an auto mechanic for four years. They then move back to Utah in West Valley where two more children were born. Bill was a devoted member of the church and serviced in many church callings including serving in the Odgen LDS temple. Bill faithfully attended the temple once a week up until four week ago when his health began to deteriorate.

He loved music, played the guitar and enjoyed singing. Bill was a people person who enjoyed meeting people and making new friends. His was a kind person who never thought ill of anyone. He loved his family and especially is dear wife who proceeded him in death in 2002. Bill was the last member of his family to pass away.

He is survived by his children. William David (Connie) Booth, Susan Elizabeth (Larson) Holyoak, Dawn Mann, Daniel Bryant (Mary) Booth, Maryan Caroline (Mark) Cifton, Lisa Dorothy Gonzales, Kristie Lee, Booth, 21 grandchildren, and several great grandchildren. Bill was preceded in death by his wife Carolyn Joyce Booth, a son Nathan Weldon Booth, and a grandson Michael Booth.

“ Dear Susan and Family,
We have all lost a dear friend in your father. He was always so outgoing and friendly you just had to like and admire him. Our best to you as you honor him on Wednesday - sorry we can not be there to lend you additional support, but know that our prayers are with you and that the Lord "will not leave you comfortless." Love,
Grant and Sherrie

“ Susan, I am so glad I was able to visit with you and see your father at the insurance meeting we attended. Please accept my sincere condolences and know that I will include you in my thoughts and prayers at this difficult time. I am sure he is rejoicing at being able to see your mother, Everett, and others who have passed on before him.
