“ Bill was a great friend to me. I will miss him, along with our phone calls and lunches. My sympathies go out to Sandra and sons. Bill often told me about his family and was very proud of each of you. He loves you very much. May God bless you in this time of grief.

“ Sandra and boys - my deepest sorrow goes out to all of you. I know how much he loves you all. I loved Bill also he was a great friend and a great person. It is comforting to know he will be with all of us again. I cannot adequately express how much I enjoyed working with him in scouts and how enjoyable it was to be with him no matter the occasion. May The Lord bless all of you and may He comfort you now and in the future.

“ We moved into Bill's neighborhood when he was just 18 years old. He was always a fine young man and one who we all loved and respected. As the years have gone by, we have watched his tender care for his mother who still lives nearby. No one could ask for a better son than he has been. My husband and I extend our deepest sympathy to our dear friend Bertha and to Bill's wife and children who honored him, his wife in being his partner in service to others, and his children by their faithfulness and obedience. May God bless you all.

With love, Bob and Janet Backman

“ Please allow me to offer my condolences to the, Green family with these comforting words: How thrilling that, by means of his dearest Son, God will “reside” with mankind! - Revelation 21:3, 4. Then tears of joy will likely come into our eyes as we see the marvelous miracles performed by this “Mighty God,” especially when dead loved ones are brought back to life in the resurrection to Paradise conditions. (Acts 24:15) Such miracles will be marvelous evidence that God is with mankind and that he is wiping out all the sorrowful tears from our eyes forever. I am very sorry for your loss. May God's Word comfort you and your family. Sincerely, Meryl ~
